THE LORD IS IN HIS HOLY TEMPLE

The Lord is in His holy temple,
The Lord is in His holy temple:
Let all the earth keep silence,
Let all the earth keep silence before Him -
Keep silence, keep silence before Him. Amen.

DOXOLOGY

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heav'nly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

GLORIA PATRI

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost,
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen, Amen.

THE LORD BLESS YOU

The Lord bless you and keep you;
The Lord lift His countenance upon you,
and give you peace, and give you peace;
The Lord make His face to shine upon you,
And be gracious unto you, be gracious,
The Lord be gracious, gracious unto you. Amen.

Church Theme 2011 – "Continue in the Word" – 2 Timothy 3:14

BIBLICAL PRAYER – PART 10

We studied Nehemiah's instant prayer when his king asked him about his requests. He could not spend too much time in prayer because he could not delay his answer to the king. It indicates that (1) he must have thought of his requests for a while. His answer was not a thoughtless and instant answer, though he had to answer within a short amount of time. It means that he had been thinking and praying about the needs for a while, and the Lord gave him an opportunity to let the king know of his wishes. (2) As for Nehemiah, it was his customary and godly habit to commit everything to God. Even before the throne of his king, he did not skip prayer. It demonstrates his total dependence on God's help in every moment.

Seventeenth, prayer does not exclude human responsibility. Nehemiah 4:9, "Nevertheless we made our prayer unto our God, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them." When Nehemiah returned to his homeland, living conditions in the cities were very bad. Jerusalem was not different. The city walls were broken down, and there was no security provided for the inhabitants of the city. Besides, there were enemies of the Jews who were not happy to receive Nehemiah. They knew that he came to help the Jews. Nehemiah surveyed the city in secret at night. The verse says that Nehemiah and his company prayed together. They then set a watch against the enemies who wanted to thwart the plan to rebuild the city of Jerusalem. For sure, Nehemiah and his people prayed. However, we must not forget about a very important action they did. They watched day and night. It means that he did not neglect the duty of man. Prayer is important, but we must work together with prayer. Prayer is both a means and instrument God uses for our benefits. Through prayer, we find the will of God and His path. This point is very well illustrated in 2:12, which says, "And I arose in the night, I and some few men with me; neither told I any man what my God had put in my heart to do at Jerusalem: neither was there any beast with me, save the beast that I rode upon." God had laid some burdens in Nehemiah's heart. These burdens were related to the rebuilding of the city of Jerusalem. Instead of rebuilding the city by using His supernatural power miraculously, God moved a man, Nehemiah, by burdening his heart. This is often the way God works through our prayers. With that burden, Nehemiah surveyed the city and made a plan by setting up guards to watch for threats from the enemies. Prayer did not remove all potential threats from enemies. Instead, prayer led Nehemiah to be wise enough to continue work while running a security system. It shows us that prayer warriors also have to be faithful servants of the Lord.

Eighteenth, prayer is also a way to give thanks to the Lord. Nehemiah 11:17, "And Mattaniah the son of Micha, the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, was the principal to begin the thanksgiving in prayer: and Bakbukiah the second among his brethren, and Abda the son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun." Nehemiah 11 is a chapter about the resettlement of the people in Jerusalem. Though the city was rebuilt, if there were no citizens to live in it, it would not be a proper city. Verse 2 says, "And the people blessed all the men, that willingly offered themselves to dwell at Jerusalem." In the process of resettlement, people prayed to the Lord with thanksgiving. There are a couple of things about prayer we may need to learn. (1) Prayer is like spiritual glue to bind same minded people in the Lord. The prayer in verse 17 was not just an individual's prayer but an example of corporate prayer. With prayer, the people bonded. (2) Prayer is an expression of our hearts to God. Through prayer we express our thoughts and feelings. For the people in Nehemiah 11, it was thanksgiving they wanted to express to the Lord. How can we give thanks to the Lord? We pray.

Nineteenth, prayer is for us. The proud and wicked say as in Job 21:15, “What is the Almighty, that we should serve him? and what profit should we have, if we pray unto him?” But, we must know that prayer is not for God. He does not need our prayers. Instead, prayer is a privilege given to the Lord’s people for their benefit. In fact, Hebrews 4:16 expresses this thought beautifully, “Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.” Prayer is also a means God has provided to His people in order for them to meet their needs.

Twentieth, prayer can be made on behalf of other people. Job 42:8, “Therefore take unto you now seven bullocks and seven rams, and go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and my servant Job shall pray for you: for him will I accept: lest I deal with you after your folly, in that ye have not spoken of me the thing which is right, like my servant Job.” It is necessary to analyze the background of this teaching a bit. (1) Job’s three friends falsely accused Job about the reasons for his suffering. (2) In the meanwhile, they tried to tell Job that the God they knew could not but punish him with such severity because of his sins. In their accusations, they exposed their theologies. (3) God was very displeased with them because of their wrong thoughts about Him. (4) When God revealed Himself, He made it clear that He would not accept their follies. However, He was willing to forgive them with one condition. (5) They would bring their offerings to Job, and he would offer them for his friends and pray for them. Then, God would forgive them. That’s what Job did and God forgave them. It is worthy of our notice that the three friends were not punished for their wrongs but gently rebuked and encouraged to rectify the problem by asking Job to offer their sacrifices and to pray for them. In this way, God corrected them and restored Job to be respected by them. God used prayer for both purposes.

Twenty-first, prayer is to call upon the Lord. Psalm 4:1, “Hear me when I call, O God of my righteousness: thou hast enlarged me when I was in distress; have mercy upon me, and hear my prayer” (cf. 39:12; 42:8; 54:2; 55:1; 61:1; 65:2). (1) David says that prayer is a calling. The called is none other than God Himself. David calls God the God of his righteousness. Psalm 5:2 may be a good supplement to the verse, which says, “Hearken unto the voice of my cry, my King, and my God: for unto thee will I pray” (cf. 86:6). (a) David says his prayer is the voice of his cry. (b) David calls God his king and his God. (c) The word for cry in this verse refers to a cry for help. (2) David also requests the Lord to hear him. The word for hear in this verse means to answer. Thus, God’s answer is expected. (3) David remembers God’s past grace in his prayer. God enlarged him when he was in distress. It means that God gave him relief in times of trouble. (4) David prays for God’s mercy.

Twenty-second, prayer is made with an earnest heart. Psalm 5:3, “My voice shalt thou hear in the morning, O LORD; in the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee, and will look up.” (cf. 66:19, 20; 69:13). David mentions the timing of his prayer, morning, twice in this verse. It may mean both morning as a time and sign of earnestness. Psalm 55:17 complements 5:3 by saying, “Evening, and morning, and at noon, will I pray, and cry aloud: and he shall hear my voice.” Our prayer is not limited to any time frame. We are to pray without ceasing. We need to pray earnestly and diligently. Earnest prayer is also expressed by the way that David prayed. He cried aloud.

Lovingly,
Your Pastor
