Church Theme 2011 – "Continue in the Word" – 2 Timothy 3:14

BIBLICAL PRAYER – PART 11

Last week we studied David's prayer. He prayed three times a day, and I assume that was his regular prayer routine. However, his prayers could not have been limited to just three times a day. Prayer is a constant communion with the Lord, and we talk to Him at anytime, both in silence and with loud voices. Children have the privilege of access to their parents to talk and fellowship.

Twenty-third, prayer is to let God hear our needs. I do not mean to encourage you to become need-based Christians. In fact, I have been discouraged to see many professing Christians who have never outgrown their need-based level of spiritual infancy. They think they love God because their needs have been met. When there are in need in particular situations, they cry and agonize before the Lord, but when everything goes well everything stops there. Their fellowship with the Lord stops at the door of needs. They measure their faith or relationship with the Lord by their needs levels. I am quite disheartened by seeing their immaturity and superstitious forms of faith. They really do not understand what a personal relationship with the Lord means. Having said that, God knows our infirmities and weaknesses, and He also knows our needs. We are weak and imperfect beings. God knows that we have needs. He gives us opportunities and privileges to let our needs known to Him with prayers. (1) When we are sick, we pray. Psalm 35:13, "But as for me, when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth: I humbled my soul with fasting; and my prayer returned into mine own bosom." In this verse, David talks about his prayers for his friends' illnesses. It is an honorable act of faith for us to pray for our sick friends. Of course, when we are sick, we pray for ourselves too. Prayer is also made with fasting. Before I move to the next point, I'd like to make a few points about biblical fasting. (a) It is not too much to say that fasting is not an unusual practice done by some unusual people. It appears that fasting is one of many expected disciplines. We know that Moses fasted, and Jesus fasted too. John's disciples fasted, and even the disciples of the Pharisees fasted. Jesus indicated that His disciples would fast after He departed (Matthew 9:14-17). David says in Psalm 109:24, "My knees are weak through fasting; and my flesh faileth of fatness." The Lord said in Jeremiah 36:6, "Therefore go thou, and read in the roll, which thou hast written from my mouth, the words of the LORD in the ears of the people in the LORD'S house upon the fasting day: and also thou shalt read them in the ears of all Judah that come out of their cities." 1 Corinthians 7:5, "Defraud ye not one the other, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that Satan tempt you not for your incontinency." (b) Fasting is a way to humble ourselves before God. Psalm 35:13 is an example. (c) Fasting is another way to express repentance. Nehemiah 9:1, "Now in the twenty and fourth day of this month the children of Israel were assembled with fasting, and with sackclothes, and earth upon them." Joel 2:12, "Therefore also now, saith the LORD, turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning." (d) The combination of fasting and prayer often indicates desperation of the people of God in times of troubles. Esther 4:3, "And in every province, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, there was great mourning among the Jews, and fasting, and weeping, and wailing; and many lay in sackcloth and ashes." The Jews were in danger of losing their lives. They prayed, wept, and fasted. David says in Psalm 69:10, "When I wept, and chastened my soul with fasting, that was to my reproach." (e) When God's people seek the face of God seriously, they fast. Daniel 9:3, "And I set my face unto the Lord God, to seek by prayer and supplications, with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes." (f) Fasting and prayer are two important means God uses for us to experience His power. Matthew 17:21, "Howbeit this kind goeth not out but by prayer and fasting" (cf. Mark 9:29). Acts 10:30, "And Cornelius said, Four days ago I was fasting until this hour; and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and, behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing."

(g) When church office bearers are appointed and ordained, God's people need to fast and pray for them. Acts 14:23, "And when they had ordained them elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they believed." The appointment of church workers or office bearers is not a light matter. They must meet biblical qualifications, and the church needs to commit them to the Lord with prayer and fasting.

(2) When we are in afflictions, dangers or fear, we need to pray. (a) David prays for God's protection. Psalm 64:1, "Hear my voice, O God, in my prayer: preserve my life from fear of the enemy" (cf. 84:8; 102:1). (b) There was a time when enemies spoke against David. They lied to him and about him. They fought him without any cause and did not hesitate to show their hatred towards him. He showed them love, but they returned it with enmity. In such times, David prayed. Psalm 109:4, "For my love they are my adversaries: but I give myself unto prayer." (c) When God is the one who is angry with God's people, they ought to pray. Psalm 80:4, "O LORD God of hosts, how long wilt thou be angry against the prayer of thy people?" When God chastens His people, they ought to pray to Him. Isaiah 26:16, "LORD, in trouble have they visited thee, they poured out a prayer when thy chastening was upon them." (d) If God is for us, then why do we not pray to Him? Psalm 6:9, "The LORD hath heard my supplication; the LORD will receive my prayer" (cf. 143:1). Psalm 88:2, "Let my prayer come before thee: incline thine ear unto my cry." Psalm 102:17, "He will regard the prayer of the destitute, and not despise their prayer." (e) When we are reminded of God in times of trouble, we should pray. Jonah remembered God in the fish's belly and prayed to Him. Jonah 2:7, "When my soul fainted within me I remembered the LORD: and my prayer came in unto thee, into thine holy temple."

Twenty-fourth, prayer is a sacred duty as well as a privilege. I hope that you may pay attention to the two words, "sacred" and "duty." They indicate that God's people must pray, and that their prayers must be right. (1) The prayer of the wicked is sinful. Psalm 109:7, "When he shall be judged, let him be condemned: and let his prayer become sin." In the meanwhile, the prayer of the godly is God's delight. Proverbs 15:8, "The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the LORD: but the prayer of the upright is his delight." Proverbs 15:29 also says, "The LORD is far from the wicked: but he heareth the prayer of the righteous." (2) The prayer of the disobedient is only an abomination. Proverbs 28:9, "He that turneth away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer shall be abomination." One good example is Moab. Isaiah 16:12, "And it shall come to pass, when it is seen that Moab is weary on the high place, that he shall come to his sanctuary to pray; but he shall not prevail." Moab would be judged within three years according to 16:14. The prayers of Moab would not be heard. (3) Praying to wrong objects is useless. Isaiah 45:20, "Assemble yourselves and come; draw near together, ye that are escaped of the nations: they have no knowledge that set up the wood of their graven image, and pray unto a god that cannot save." Such prayers do not produce any desired effects. (4) It is possible that even the people of God pray to Him out of ignorance or even with anger. Jonah was one of them. Jonah 4:2, "And he prayed unto the LORD, and said, I pray thee, O LORD, was not this my saying, when I was yet in my country? Therefore I fled before unto Tarshish: for I knew that thou art a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repentest thee of the evil." He did not understand God's way of working and did not want to understand it either. He prayed in anger, which was wrong. His wish was not granted, but God's work was accomplished.

Lovingly,

Your Pastor
