THE LORD IS IN HIS HOLY TEMPLE

The Lord is in His holy temple,
The Lord is in His holy temple:
Let all the earth keep silence,
Let all the earth keep silence before Him -
Keep silence, keep silence before Him. Amen.

DOXOLOGY

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heav’nly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

GLORIA PATRI

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost,
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen, Amen.

THE LORD BLESS YOU

The Lord bless you and keep you;
The Lord lift His countenance upon you,
and give you peace, and give you peace;
The Lord make His face to shine upon you,
And be gracious unto you, be gracious,
The Lord be gracious, gracious unto you. Amen.

Church Theme 2011 – “Continue in the Word” – 2 Timothy 3:14

BIBLICAL PRAYER – PART 25

Two weeks ago, I mentioned four things that we ought to pray for ourselves. They are physical needs, physical healings, the Lord's guidance, and wisdom. Each and every one of these four items is important, though I have written about them only briefly. For example, let me think about praying for the Lord's guidance. This prayer implies lots of things including our needs to make major decisions in life like careers, marriage, relationships, or future directions. There are a couple of more items we may consider to pray for ourselves.

Fifth, we pray for victory over temptations. It is a part of the Lord's prayer. Matthew 6:13 says, "And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen." Luke 22:40, "And when he was at the place, he said unto them, Pray that ye enter not into temptation." Noah Webster defines temptation as "Solicitation of the passions; enticements to evil proceeding from the prospect of pleasure or advantage." Then, we may think about the varieties of temptations in life. We may consider the first temptation by which all mankind fell into sin. Genesis 3:6 says, "And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat." Maybe the temptation implied here is epitomized by the teachings from 1 John 2:15, "Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him." The temptation of jealousy caused Cain to murder his own brother. Temptation brought Lot and his family to the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah. We find temptations that stir up the lustful passions of men and women. David sinned against God, and Solomon also fell unto sin. Temptations came through lust. Temptations coming through sinful flesh are powerful. Judas Iscariot betrayed the Master for thirty pieces of silver. Ananias and Sapphira fell into temptation that caused immediate divine judgment in Acts 5. This temptation is related to their hypocrisy, lie to God, and love of money. Money is essential for our survival, but the love of money is also the root of all sins. Persecution is also a temptation that weakens our trust in God and turns our hearts away from Him. That is precisely what the Lord Jesus cautioned His men in Luke 22:40b, "Pray that ye enter not into temptation." We all know that Peter denied the Lord three times in one night. Therefore, we need to pray for victories over temptations. We do know that whatever the challenge is God gives us the victory. Proverbs 21:31, "The horse is prepared against the day of battle: but safety is of the LORD." Only God can be of our help in times of temptations. Psalm 60:11, "Give us help from trouble: for vain is the help of man."

Sixth, we pray for forgiveness of sins. Matthew 6:12, "And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors." Jesus prayed for the ones who opposed Him for forgiveness in Luke 23:34, "Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do. And they parted his raiment, and cast lots." Stephen prayed for God's forgiveness for the ones who laid their hands on and killed him in Acts 7:60, "And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell asleep." Prayer for forgiveness is well mentioned in Solomon's prayer at the time of the Temple dedication in 1 Kings 8:47-50, "Yet if they shall bethink themselves in the land whither they were carried captives, and repent, and make supplication unto thee in the land of them that carried them captives, saying, We have sinned, and have done perversely, we have committed wickedness;⁴⁸ And so return unto thee with all their heart, and with all their soul, in the land of their enemies, which led them away captive, and pray unto thee toward their land, which thou gavest unto their fathers, the city which thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built for thy name:⁴⁹ Then hear thou their prayer and their supplication in heaven thy dwelling place, and maintain their cause, ⁵⁰ And forgive thy people that have sinned against thee, and all their transgressions wherein they have transgressed against thee, and give them compassion before them who carried them captive, that they may have compassion on them.” Ezra 9:15, “O LORD God of Israel, thou art righteous: for we remain yet escaped, as it is this day: behold, we are before thee in our trespasses: for we cannot stand before thee because of this.” Psalm 25:11, “For thy name's sake, O LORD, pardon mine iniquity; for it is great.” When Simon wanted to buy God's gifts with money and Peter pronounced a judgment upon him, Peter also told him to pray to God for His forgiveness in Acts 8:22, “Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee.”

Last, but not least, we pray for peace. When I am talking about peace, I talk about both spiritual and physical peace. 1 Timothy 2:1-2, “I exhort therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men; ² For kings, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty.” In February 2011, the official result of a referendum in South Sudan indicated that South Sudan would likely become the world's newest and 196th country. There are 192 member countries in the United Nations, while Vatican City and Kosovo are not member countries. Out of these countries, 49 countries are currently in wars according to Wikipedia. In other words, almost 25% of the whole world is involved in wars one way or another. Though some countries are not in war, there are oppressions and cruel dictatorship that take away the freedom of people at the wills of the rulers in many other countries. People are suffering in so many parts of the world without peace. Therefore, it is extremely important for us to pray for our peaceful life. Jeremiah 29:7 says, “And seek the peace of the city whither I have caused you to be carried away captives, and pray unto the LORD for it: for in the peace thereof shall ye have peace.” Peace does not come without a cost. We may not be able to go out with arms to keep peace in our country, but surely we can pray for the peace of our land. It is not only for the country, but also for ourselves. When we pray for peace, I think it is more than appropriate to pray for our spiritual and inner peace. Peace may come through prayer. Philippians 4:6-7, “Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. ⁷ And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.” When we pray for peace, why should we not pray for peace at home? It means that we should pray for our loved ones, especially for family members. I was very touched by reading David's prayer for his son, Solomon in 1 Chronicles 29:19, “And give unto Solomon my son a perfect heart, to keep thy commandments, thy testimonies, and thy statutes, and to do all these things, and to build the palace, for the which I have made provision.” How many homes are not peaceful because of rebellious and unspiritual children? We need to pray for our children's peaceful lives. In order to keep peace at home, we need to pray for sanctify of marriage. Hebrews 13:4, “Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge.” The book of Proverbs has so many references talking about the dangers of sexual sins. Proverbs 5:3-4, “For the lips of a strange woman drop as an honeycomb, and her mouth is smoother than oil: ⁴ But her end is bitter as wormwood, sharp as a twoedged sword.” There are verses encouraging couples to be faithful to each other (cf. Proverbs 5:15-23). Fidelity and purity in marriage bring peace to families. We ought to pray for such peace in our homes. Consider how many homes and families are broken up by infidelity. Let us pray for peace for ourselves.

Lovingly,

Your Pastor
