Church Theme 2012 – “Have a Mind to Work” – Nehemiah 4:6

FROM THE PASTOR'S HEART.....

A Father's Letter - Part 2

I'll continue from the last week's letter from Mr. Isaac Watts Sr. to his children.

Secondly, consider seriously and often of the sinful and miserable estate you are in by nature, and that you are liable to eternal wrath thereupon; also think of the way of fallen man's recovery by grace, according to the foundation-principles of the true Christian religion, which you have learned in your catechism; and beg of God by prayer to give you understanding in them, and faith to believe in Jesus Christ, and a heart willing to yield obedience to his gospel commands in all things.

Though you cannot tell how to pray as you should do, nor in any order, yet be not afraid nor ashamed to try. Go aside, my dear children, and think in your minds, what it is that you want to make you holy and happy. Tell God that you want pardon of sin, a soft, tender, and sanctified heart, a portion of the spirit, etc.; and then beg God to help you to pray for those things, and to teach you to pray, and to pardon the iniquities of your prayers. My children, though it may want a form of words, yet if the heart be in it, this is prayer, and such prayer too as God will hear and accept; for He despises not the day of small things, nor little ones, but loves to see them come and tell Him what they would have. Tell Him you would pray better, but you cannot, till He pleases to help you. My children, if you do but use this way, you shall find that in time you will come to have praying gifts and praying graces, too; 'for to them that ask it shall be given.' (Matt. 7:7, "Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you:")

Thirdly, learn to know God according to the discoveries He hath made of Himself in and by His word, in all His glorious attributes and infinite perfections; especially learn to know Him in and through the Lord Jesus Christ, and to be acquainted with this blessed Redeemer of God's elect.

Fourth, remember that God is your Creator, from whom you received life and being; and as such you are bound to worship Him; much more when you consider that He is your benefactor, from the fountain of whose goodness all your mercies come. Now, upon both these accounts, the best of your time and abilities are required in His service; and the earlier you begin to devote yourselves to His service, the abler you will be to perform it acceptably, the greater will be your honour here, and your glory hereafter; though you must not expect to merit aught at His hands, by way of merit for what you can do, yet certain it is, the Jesus Christ will reward everyone according to his works; and we are bidden to look to the recompense of reward, in that sense after Moses' example; and it is no small commendation and honour to be an old disciple of Christ.

Fifth, know this, that as you must worship God, so it must be in His own ways, with true worship and in a right manner; that is, according to the rules of the gospel, and not according to the inventions or traditions of men. Consider that idolatry and superstition are both abominable to God.

Lastly, I charge you to be dutiful and obedient to all your superiors: to your grandfather and both grandmothers, and all other relations and friends that are over you, but in an especial manner to your mother, to whose care and government God hath wholly committed you in my absence; who as I am sure, dearly loves you, so she will command and direct you to her utmost ability in all ways, for your good of soul and body. Consider, she is left alone to bear all the burden of brining you up; and is, as it were, a widow; her time is filled up with many cares, and, therefore, do not grieve her by any rebellious or disobedient ways, but be willing to learn of her and be ruled by her, that she may have some comfort in seeing your obedient carriage; and it will rejoice me to hear it. Avoid bad company of wicked children; abhor swearing, lying, and playing on the Sabbath-day, and all other wicked courses; so shall you grow in favour with God and man. Love one another. You that are eldest, help to teach the younger; and you that are younger, do not scorn the teachings of the elder. These things I charge and command you with the authority and love of a father. Now commending you to God, and what I have written to His blessing upon your hearts, through Jesus Christ, with my dear love to your mother, my duty to your grandfather and grandmothers, and love to all other friends, being indifferent in health, I rest your very loving father. Isaac Watts.”

Isaac Watts Jr. was 11 years old when he received this letter from his father. Both the father’s instruction and the child’s understanding and comprehension of the spiritual things are quite amazing. However, if we know that Isaac Watts’ Snr’s contemporaries were Owen, Goodwin, Manton, and Bunyan, we should not be surprised. Our spirituality is less than shallow before those giants.

Lovingly,

Your Pastor

SHORTER CATECHISM QUESTION 18

Q: Wherein consists the sinfulness of that estate whereinto man fell?

A: The sinfulness of that estate whereinto man fell consists in the guilt of Adam's first sin, the want of original righteousness, and the corruption of his whole nature, which is commonly called original sin; together with all actual transgression which proceed from it.

Comments:

This answer tells us of the extent of the sinfulness which has been brought upon us through Adam's fall. It tells us that this sinfulness consists of two parts – the sin of our natures, and the sin of our lives. The former is called original sin. The latter includes all the actual sins we commit. Original sin springs directly from our connexion with Adam. Actual sin springs directly from our own evil hearts.

Proofs:

Romans 7:23, Matthew 15:19, Psalm 51:5
